Tavira

Modern design challenges the traditional

What would life be without handles on doors? Life would be a bit more complicated for sure. But besides having a purely practical function, the details complement the rest of the interior and showcase the room designer's personality and nature.

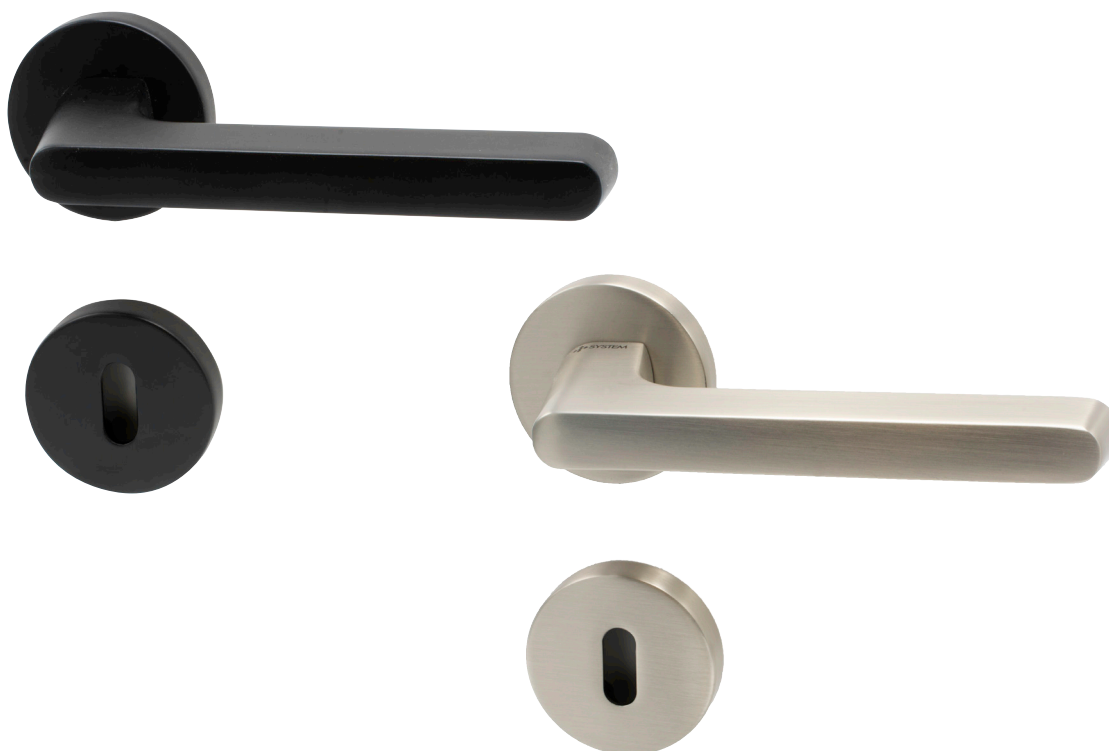

Tavira is ideal for all indoor doors and is a modern door handle with a soft comfortable grip. Available in two designs - black and stainless steel. The door handle and escutcheon fits doors with 35-48 mm thickness.
